Chair's Message 2009-2010

Founded in 1943, the Ontario Labour Relations Board is the largest labour and employment tribunal in Canada. Widely regarded as the premier administrative tribunal in Ontario, the Board administers over twenty different pieces of legislation and has a current caseload of approximately 5700 files. The Board is regarded nationally as the leading jurisdiction in the continuing development of labour law and the processes used in mediation and adjudication.

The Board issues about 6500 decisions a year and settles close to 90 per cent of all applications filed. The median time between the filing of an application and a final decision or settlement for matters initiated in the last year is 37 days.

As an independent administrative tribunal the Board exercises authority and jurisdiction over a wide range of different types of workplace disputes. Regardless of what statute we are working under, the Board's first priority is to assist the workplace parties in the expeditious, practical and effective resolution of their dispute. We strongly believe that the best outcome is a negotiated settlement that the parties construct themselves, which enables them to quickly get back to the business of their own workplace.

Besides its own unique role and identity, the Board anchors and leads a larger cluster of tribunals, dealing with different aspects of workplace law and adjudication.

In the late nineties, the Board merged with the Office of Adjudication and acquired responsibility for appeals under the Employment Standards Act and the Occupational Health and Safety Act. The Pay Equity Hearings Tribunal now chaired by the Board's Alternate Chair, is housed physically within the Board and uses the Board's administrative, professional and support staff. The Colleges Relations Commission and the Education Relations Commissions are similarly operated from within the Board with members and administrative staff cross-appointed to both. Board Vice-Chairs are cross-appointed to the Human Rights Tribunal of Ontario and the Board shares certain administrative services and physical space with the Workplace Safety and Insurance Appeals Tribunal. The Board's Registrar/Director is also the Registrar Director of the Pay Equity Hearings Tribunal and the Education and Colleges Relations Commissions.

Increasingly, the model of clustering tribunals that provide similar adjudicative services in the same sectors is being transported to other areas of adjudication in Ontario and in other provinces. In the past year, the government of Ontario has created two new clusters of administrative tribunals, structurally based on the OLRB model. The benefits of clustering tribunals include an efficient use of resources, consistency of process and outcome and the ability to maintain and monitor quality control practices across a wide range of subject matter. These objectives are accomplished while at the same time safeguarding the particular and unique expertise of each agency or tribunal.

This exercise of clustering tribunals that work in related areas is regarded as an appropriate method of balancing independence with the need to ensure that scarce public resources are put to best use. The Board is understood to be a leader in the development of the cluster model and is regularly consulted for advice and assistance with other clustering projects both within and outside Ontario.

The Board has also developed a nationally recognized expertise in the development of alternative and expedited adjudicative processes. Tribunals in other sectors and provinces have increasingly adopted the “consultation” process pioneered by the Board over the last twelve years. In a number of cases now, the Courts have commented favourably on the Board’s ability to use the consultation process to achieve expeditious and cost effective, fair adjudicative outcomes. Indeed, some features of the consultation process have been introduced into new Court procedures that permit Judges to make factual determinations in summary proceedings on the basis of written material or limited evidence and information.

The Board continually looks for new ways to speak with, listen to and interact with its community of users. In the last year, the Board has introduced a number of changes and amendments to its Rules and forms in response to suggestions originating from the Board’s Community Advisory Committee.

This last year, as throughout the Board’s history, our successes come directly from the expertise and dedication that our staff brings to their jobs, every day of the year. All of us remain committed to provide the highest quality of dispute resolution to our extended user communities.

We look forward to another year of service to the public and as always, we welcome your comments, suggestions and inquiries.

OLRB Annual Report 2009-2010

Accountability Statement

The OLRB's Annual Report for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2010 was prepared under my direction for submission to the Minister of Labour in accordance with the Agency Establishment and Accountability Directive – 2010, as issued by Management Board of Cabinet .

Preface

The Public Accounts of Ontario are the annual financial statements that are prepared in compliance with the requirements of Section 13 of the Ministry of Treasury and Economics Act. The Public Accounts consist of the financial report of the Government of Ontario and the financial reports of each ministry. In accordance with the Ministry of Labour's Delegation of Financial Authority Framework, financial authority is delegated to the agency. Each year the OLRB verifies that all its transactions are reflected accurately and completely in the Public Accounts through the execution of a Certificate of Assurance.

The Results Based Plan of the Ministry of the Labour, which is to be released in the fall of each year, contains the Ministry's mission and accountability statements, the consolidated financial/allocation statements of the Ministry and an annual comparison of actual performance results to desired results set out in the Ministry business plan.

As an agency of the Ministry of Labour, the OLRB's Annual Report is subject to the minimum reporting requirements established in the Agency Establishment and Accountability Directive, including:

- financial statements that have been audited or subject to the appropriate level of external assurance;
- analysis of operational performance;
- analysis of financial performance;
- names of appointees and term of appointments
- performance measures, targets achieved/not achieved and action to be taken.

This report covers the fiscal year April 1, 2009 to March 31, 2010.

I Organizational Overview

- Key Program Activities, Legislative Authority, Mandate
- OICs and Staff

OLRB – Key Program Activities

Today, the OLRB exercises authority under a broad spectrum of some twenty different workplace and employment related laws. In addition to those areas of law for which we are formally responsible, we provide senior administrative and institutional support for our cluster of workplace related agencies: the Pay Equity Hearings Tribunal, the Colleges Relations Commission and the Education Relations Commission. Moreover, the “clustering” of Tribunals across the administrative justice sector is led by the OLRB and represents the most efficient public model example to date of how to improve the quality of administrative justice and dispute resolution through modern, streamlined and efficient administration.

The Board is an independent tribunal mandated to handle a variety of different applications, under a number of different pieces of legislation, including:

- Colleges Collective Bargaining Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. C.15
- Community Small Business Investment Funds Act, S.O 1992, c.18.
- Crown Employees Collective Bargaining Act, 1993, S.O. 1993, c. 38
- Education Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. E.2
- Employment Standards Act, R.S.O. 1990, c.E.14
- Environmental Bill of Rights Act, 1993, S.O. 1993, c. 28
- Environmental Protection Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. E.19 which gives the Board jurisdiction under the following legislation:
 - * Environmental Assessment Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. E.18
 - * Environmental Protection Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. E.19
 - * Ontario Water Resources Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. O.40
 - * Pesticides Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. P.11
 - * Fisheries Act, R.S.C. 1970, c. F-14
- Fire Protection and Prevention Act, 1997, S.O. 1997, c.4
- Hospital Labour Disputes Arbitration Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. H.14
- Labour Relations Act, 1995, S.O. 1995, c. 1, Sch. A
- Occupational Health and Safety Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. O.7
- Public Sector Labour Relations Transition Act, 1997, S.O. 1997, c. 21
- Public Service of Ontario Act, R.S.O. 2006, c. P.47
- Smoke Free Ontario Act (unlawful reprisals), Regulation 48/06

The Ontario Labour Relations Board (the “Board”) was established by section 2 of the Labour Relations Act, 1948 (the “Act”) and is continued by subsection 110(1) of the Labour Relations Act, 1995 S.O. 1995, C1, as amended. The Board is an adjudicative agency of the Government of Ontario and its staff is appointed under the Public Service of Ontario Act.

The Board is an independent, adjudicative tribunal issuing decisions based upon the evidence presented and submissions made to it by the parties, and upon its interpretation and determination of the relevant legislation and jurisprudence. It plays a fundamental role in the labour relations regime in Ontario and encourages harmonious relations between employers, employees and trade unions by dealing with matters before it as expeditiously and as fairly as reasonably possible.

The Board's primary work is administering the Labour Relations Act, 1995, which regulates many aspects of collective bargaining in Ontario. The legislative policy underlying the Act is set out in section 2:

2. The following are the purposes of the Act:

1. To facilitate collective bargaining between employers and trade unions that are the freely designated representatives of the employees.
2. To recognize the importance of workplace parties adapting to change.
3. To promote flexibility, productivity and employee involvement in the workplace.
4. To encourage communication between employers and employees in the workplace.
5. To recognize the importance of economic growth as the foundation for mutually beneficial relations amongst employers, employees and trade unions.
6. To encourage co-operative participation of employers and trade unions in resolving workplace issues.
7. To promote the expeditious resolution of workplace disputes.

With this policy as a basis, the Act confers on the Board the authority over many important aspects of labour relations, including the certification of unions to represent employees, unfair labour practices, successor bargaining rights, strikes and lock-outs, first contract directions, jurisdictional disputes and the arbitration of grievances in the construction industry. In order to carry out this mandate, the full Board is composed of a Chair, an Alternate Chair, Vice-Chairs, and Board Members. These individuals draw upon specialized expertise in labour relations in hearing and determining cases before them. The Board strives to keep its procedures informal, expeditious and fair, and to avoid being overly technical or legalistic. However, it is important to recognize that legal rights are in issue, the statutory framework is often complex, and, these days, it is common for parties to be represented by lawyers.

Under section 114(1) of the Labour Relations Act, 1995, the Board has the exclusive jurisdiction to exercise the power conferred upon it and to determine all questions of fact or law that arise. Its decisions are not subject to appeal and a privative clause in the Act limits the scope of judicial review. The Board does have the power to reconsider any of its decisions, although it exercises this jurisdiction carefully in the interests of finality and fairness. The Board is also entitled to determine its own practices and procedures and to make rules. Those rules and the forms for commencing or responding to cases are available on the OLRB's website www.gov.on.ca/lab/olrb/eng/homeeng.htm or, directly, from the Board at 505 University Avenue, 2nd Floor, Toronto, Ontario, M5G 2P1, in both paper form and computer disk.

Board Staff and Key Activities

The OLRB's operations and staff can be broadly divided into: The Board, Administration, Field Services (mediation), and Legal Services. The administrative, field, and legal staff are civil service appointments. The Board is composed of a Chair, an Alternate Chair, Vice-Chairs and Board Members. The Chair, Alternate Chair, Vice-Chairs and Board Members are appointed by the Lieutenant Governor in Council as Order in Council appointments (OIC).

ADMINISTRATION:

Office of the Director and Registrar

The Director and Registrar is the chief administrative officer of the Board. He is responsible for the overall administration of the Board's businesses: operations, mediation and adjudication. The Director and Registrar oversees the effective processing and scheduling of each case, and communicates with the parties in matters relating to the mediation of cases, scheduling of hearings or on particular problems in the processing of any given case. Every application received by the Board enters the system through the Director and Registrar's office.

Manager of Administration

The Manager of Administration is responsible for the efficient operation of the Board through the effective and efficient coordination of the procurement and budget functions, human resources functions, client services, Information and Information Technology, and the provision of administrative direction for all shared/common services.

Library Services

Comprised of the former Ontario Labour Relations Board Library, the Workplace Safety and Insurance Appeals Tribunal Library and the Pay Equity Commission Library, the Ontario Workplace Tribunals Library is situated in the Board offices at 505 University Avenue, Toronto on the 7th floor.

Library holdings related to the OLRB include all reported OLRB decisions from 1944 to date, all judicial reviews of OLRB decisions from 1947 to date, all bargaining unit certificates issued by the OLRB from 1962 forward. In addition, the Library has a collection of all Employment Standards review decisions from 1970 to date and all Occupational Health and Safety appeal decisions from 1980 to date. Textbooks, journals and case reports in the areas of labour, administrative and constitutional law are also held.

Field Services: (Mediation)

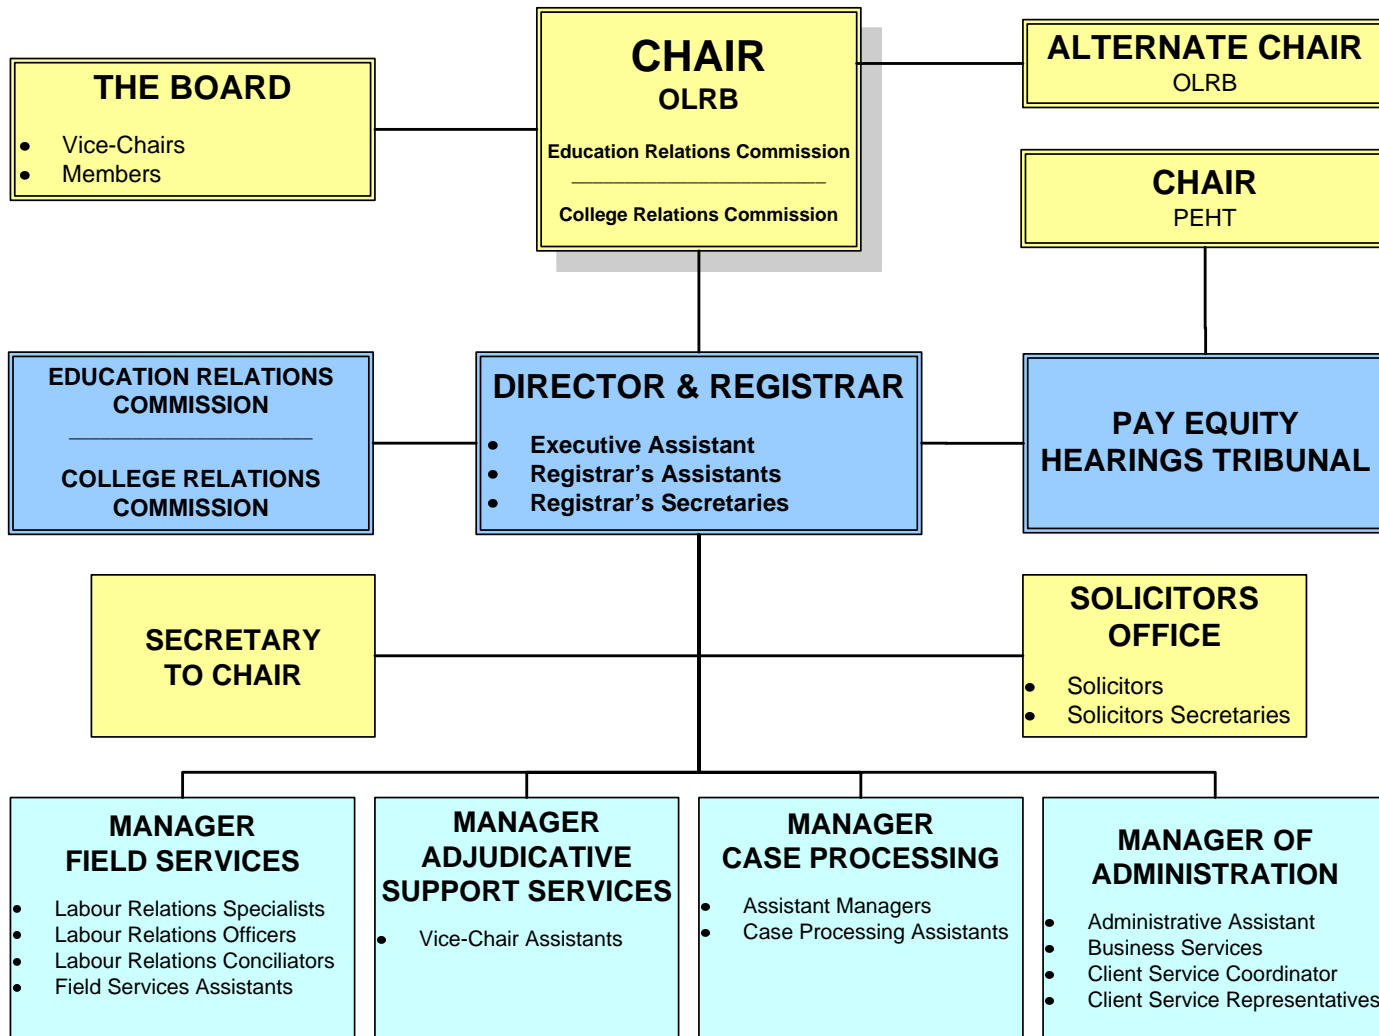

The Board is a pioneer in the area of alternative dispute resolution. The Manager of Field Services, Labour Relations Specialists, and Labour Relations Officers, are responsible for mediating settlements in all of the Board's cases. In addition to settling cases, Labour Relations Officers assist parties in identifying issues and streamlining the cases that do get adjudicated in order to avoid unnecessary litigation. They also, along with the Board's Conciliation Officers, carry out the Board's pre and post vote phone mediation program and conduct representation and final offer votes.

Legal Services:

Legal Services to the Board are provided by the Solicitors' Office, which consists of two Board Solicitors. The Solicitors provide legal research, advice, opinions and memoranda to the Chair, Vice-Chairs, Board Members, Labour Relations Officers and administrative staff. They are extensively involved in changes to the Board's rules of procedure and forms and contribute to the continuing education of staff. The Board's Solicitors also represent the Board in court proceedings, including applications for judicial review.

II Executive Summary – Overview of Results

Operational Performance:

- Caseload analysis
- Caseload and statistical tables

OLRB - Operational Performance:

CASELOAD ANALYSIS, CASE MANAGEMENT EFFICIENCIES and STATISTICAL TABLES/GRAPHS 2009-2010

Caseload Analysis

In fiscal year 2009-2010, the Board had a total caseload of 5,558 applications, appeals and complaints, a decrease of 1.7% from 2008-2009.

The Board received 4,007 new cases and 1,551 cases were carried over from the previous year. Of the total caseload, 3,675 were disposed of during the year and 1,883 were pending in various stages of processing/mediation/adjudication on March 31, 2010.

Note: The section numbers referred to below correspond to the Labour Relations Act, 1995, S.O. 1995, c.1, Schedule A ("Bill 7").

Labour Relations Officer Activity

Labour Relations Specialists and Officers are the Board's professional mediators. They are assigned to every Board case in an effort to facilitate settlements in matters brought before the Board, without the need for formal litigation before the Board itself. (Table 3)

Of those cases in which activity was completed and cases disposed by the end of the year, 83.8% of these cases were settled with the assistance of Labour Relations Officers. Officers referred 597 cases to the Board for decisions or proceedings; and settlement efforts were continuing in 1,883 cases on March 31, 2010.

Vice-Chair/Adjudicator Decisions

Vice-Chairs wrote 6,442 decisions covering 4,646 cases between April 1, 2009 and March 31, 2010.

Disposition Time – Major Categories

Table 6 provides statistics on the time taken by the Board to process the 2,785 cases disposed of in 2009-2010, excluding cases in which proceedings were adjourned sine die. Information is shown separately for the three major categories of cases handled by the Board – Certification applications, complaints of Contravention of the Act, and Referrals of Grievances under Construction Industry Collective Agreements – and for the remaining categories combined.

Overall median times to proceed from filing to disposition for the 2,785 cases was 37 days. Median times for the three major categories of cases: 508 certification applications were processed in a median of 18 days; 504 complaints of contravention of the Act took 62 days; 461 referrals of construction industry grievances required 11 days, and the remaining 1,312, for all other categories combined, took 55 days.

Certification of Bargaining Agents

In 2009-2010, the Board received 623 applications for certification of trade unions as bargaining agents of employees, a decrease of 16% from 2008-2009. (Table 1)

In addition to the 623 applications received, 252 cases were carried over from last year, making a total certification caseload of 875 in 2009-2010. Of the total caseload, 559 were disposed of and 316 cases were pending on March 31, 2010. Of the 559 dispositions, certification was granted in 320 cases; 108 cases were dismissed; 6 cases were terminated; and 125 cases were settled. The certified cases represented 46.4% of the total dispositions. (Table 1)

Of the 428 applications that were either certified or dismissed, final decisions in a number of cases were based on the results of representation votes. Of the 304 votes conducted, 280 involved a single union on the ballot, and 24 were between two unions. Applicants won in 210 of the votes and lost in the other 84. (Table 5)

A total of 14,145 employees were eligible to vote in the 304 elections, of whom 10,869 or 76.8% cast ballots. In the 182 votes that were won and resulted in certification, 9,807 or 77.4% of the 12,669 employees eligible to vote cast ballots. Of these voters, 5,764 or 58.8% favoured union representation. In the 84 elections that were lost and resulted in dismissals, 4,353 employees participated, and, of these, 1,234 or 28.4% voted for union representation. (Table 5)

Seven unions, each with more than 25 applications, accounted for 57% of the total filings: Labourers (133), Carpenters (63), Canadian Auto Workers (29), Canadian Union of Public Employees (CUPE) (47), Painters (29), Food and Commercial Workers (25), and Bricklayers International (29). In contrast, fifteen unions filed fewer than five applications each. These unions together accounted for 5.8% of the total certification filings. (Table 7)

Table 8 gives the industrial distribution of the certification applications received and disposed of during the year. Non-manufacturing industries accounted for 97.9% of the applications received, concentrated in construction (286) and other services (171). These two groups comprised 74.9% of the total non-manufacturing applications. The 13 applications involving establishments in manufacturing industries comprised 2.1% of the new applications.

Size and Composition of Bargaining Units

Small units continued to be the predominant pattern of union organizing efforts through the certification process in 2009-2010. The average size of the 319 bargaining units in the 317 applications that were certified was 28 employees, compared with 26 employees in 2008-2009. The 145 units in construction certifications averaged 8 employees, and the 172 units in non-construction certifications averaged 46 employees. 84.9% of the total certification applications involved units of fewer than 40 employees, and 49.8% applied to units of fewer than ten employees. The total number of employees covered by the certification applications granted decreased to 9,002 from 10,315 in 2008-2009. (Table 9)

Of the employees covered by the certification applications granted, 476, or 6.5%, were in bargaining units that comprised full-time employees or in units that excluded employees working 24 hours or less a week. Units composed of employees working 24 hours or less a week accounted for 351 employees. Full-time and part-time employees were represented in units covering 856 employees, including units that did not specifically exclude employees working 24 hours or less a week. (Tables 11 and 12)

Fifteen and one-half (15.5) percent of the employees, or 1,395 were employed in production and related occupations. (Tables 13 and 14)

Disposition Time – Certifications Granted

A median time of 17 working days were required to complete the 320 certification applications granted from receipt to disposition. For non-construction certification, the median time was 17 days for 173 cases; and for construction certification, the median time was 17 days for 147 cases. (Table 10)

Eighty-four point one (84.1) percent of the 320 certification applications granted were disposed of in 84 days (3 months) or less. (Table 10)

Termination of Bargaining Rights

In 2009-2010, the Board received 140 applications under sections 63, 65, 66, 67, and 132 of the Act, seeking termination of the bargaining rights of trade unions. In addition, 22 cases were carried over from 2008-2009. (Table 1)

Of the 162 cases processed, bargaining rights were terminated in 7 cases, 36 cases were dismissed, 22 cases were settled and 50 cases were pending on March 31, 2010.

38 representation votes were held on 83 cases that were either granted or dismissed. A total of 1,476 employees were eligible to vote in the 38 elections that were held, of whom 1,062 or 72% cast ballots. Of those who cast ballots, 128 voted for continued representation by unions and 221 voted against. (Table 5)

Representation Votes

In 2009-2010, the Board's Labour Relations Officers and Conciliators conducted a total of 400 representation votes among employees in one or more bargaining units. Of the 400 votes conducted, 336 involved certification applications, and 64 were held in applications for termination of existing bargaining rights. (Table 4)

Of the certification votes, 229 involved a single union on the ballot, and 37 involved two unions.

A total of 25,225 employees were eligible to vote in the 400 elections that were conducted, of whom 17,918 or 71% cast ballots. Of those who participated, 42.3% voted in favour of union representation. In the 336 elections in certification applications, 70.7% of the eligible voters cast ballots, with 43.7% of the participants voting for union representation.

In the 64 votes in applications for termination of bargaining rights, 74.5% of the eligible voters cast ballots, with only 27.8% of those who participated voting for the incumbent unions.

Final Offer Votes

In addition to taking votes ordered in its cases, the Board's Registrar was requested by the Minister to conduct votes among employees on employers' last offer for settlement of a collective agreement dispute under section

42(1) of the Act. Although the Board is not responsible for the administration of votes under that section, the Board's Registrar and field staff are assigned to conduct these votes because of their expertise and experience in conducting representation votes under the Act.

Of the 14 requests dealt with by the Board during the fiscal year, 5 cases were granted, 1 case was dismissed, 1 case was settled, and the remaining 7 cases were pending on March 31, 2010. (Table 1)

In the 6 votes held, employees accepted the employer's offer in 5 cases and rejected the offer in 1 case.

Declaration of Successor Trade Union

In 2009-2010, the Board dealt with 6 applications for declarations under section 68 of the Act concerning the bargaining rights of successor trade unions resulting from a union merger or transfer of jurisdiction. Affirmative declarations were issued by the Board in 2 cases. (Table 1)

Declaration of Successor or Common Employer Status

In 2009-2010, the Board dealt with 295 applications for declarations under section 69 of the Act concerning the bargaining rights of trade unions of a successor employer resulting from a business sale, or for declarations under section 1(4) to treat two companies as one employer. The two types of requests are often made in a single application.

Affirmative declarations were issued by the Board in 23 cases, 8 applications were dismissed, 111 cases were settled and 153 cases were pending on March 31, 2010. (Table 1)

Declaration/Direction of Unlawful Strike

In 2009-2010, the Board dealt with 19 applications seeking a declaration under section 100 regarding an alleged unlawful strike by employees in the non-construction industry. Eleven cases were settled, and four cases were granted. 4 cases were pending on March 31, 2010. (Table 1)

Consent to Prosecute

In 2009-2010, the Board dealt with 6 applications under section 109 of the Act requesting consent to institute prosecution in court against unions and employers for alleged commission of offences under the Act. One case was settled, and the 5 remaining cases were pending on March 31, 2010. (Table 1)

Complaints of Contravention of Act

Complaints alleging contravention of the Act may be filed with the Board under section 96 of the Act. In handling these cases the Board emphasizes settlements facilitated by its labour relations officers.

In 2009-2010, the Board received 658 complaints under this section. In complaints against employers, the principal charges were alleged illegal discharge of or discrimination against employees for union activity in violation of section 70 and 72 of the Act, illegal changes in wages and working conditions contrary to section 86, and failure to bargain in good faith under section 17. These charges were made mostly in connection with applications for certification. The principal charge against trade unions was alleged failure to represent employees fairly in grievances against their employer.

In addition to the complaints received, 394 cases were carried over from 2008-2009. Of the 1,052 cases processed, 449 were settled, and 428 cases were pending on March 31, 2010. (Table 1)

In 624, or 59.3%, of the 1,052 dispositions, settlements and withdrawals of the complaint were secured by labour relations officers (Table 3). Remedial orders were issued by the Board in 22 cases, 147 cases were dismissed, and 6 cases were terminated. (Table 1)

Construction Industry Grievances

Grievances over alleged violation of the provisions of a collective agreement in the construction industry may be referred to the Board for resolution under section 133 of the Act. As with complaints of contravention of the Act, the Board encourages settlement of these cases by the parties involved, with the assistance of a Labour Relations Officer.

In 2009-2010, the Board received 1,048 cases under this section. The principal issues in these grievances were alleged failure by employers to make required contributions to health and welfare, pension and vacation funds, failure to deduct union dues, and alleged violation of the subcontracting and hiring arrangements in the collective agreement.

In addition to the cases received, 158 were carried over from 2008-2009. Of the total 1,206 processed, 989 were disposed of; of these, awards were made by the Board in 179 cases, 10 cases were dismissed, and 217 cases were pending on March 31, 2010. (Table 1)

In 989, or 82% of the 1,206 dispositions, settlements and withdrawal of the grievance were obtained by labour relations officers. (Table 3)

MISCELLANEOUS APPLICATIONS AND COMPLAINTS

Religious Exemption – Exemption from Union Security Provision in Collective Agreement

Ten applications were processed under section 52 of the Act, seeking exemption for employees from the union security provisions of collective agreements because of their religious beliefs. Two applications were settled, and the remaining 8 were pending on March 31, 2010. (Table 1)

Early Termination of Collective Agreements

Eleven applications were processed under section 58(3) of the Act, seeking early termination of collective agreements. Consent was granted in ten cases and one case was settled. (Table 1)

Jurisdictional Disputes

One-hundred and fifty-three complaints were dealt with under section 99 of the Act involving union work jurisdiction. An assignment of work in dispute was made by the Board in 7 cases, 33 cases were settled, 12 cases were dismissed, 2 were terminated, and 99 cases were pending on March 31, 2010. (Table 1)

Referral on Employee Status

The Board dealt with 24 applications under section 114(2) of the Act, seeking decisions on the status of individuals as employees under the Act. Five cases were settled by the parties in discussions with labour relations officers. Four cases were granted, two cases were dismissed, and the remaining 13 cases were pending on March 31, 2010. (Table 1)

Referrals by Minister of Labour

In 2009-2010, the Board dealt with 45 cases referred by the Minister under section 115 of the Act for opinions or questions related to the Minister's authority to appoint a conciliation officer under section 18 of the Act, or an arbitrator under sections 48 or 49. Four applications were settled, and 41 cases were pending on March 31, 2010. (Table 1)

The Board also dealt with 11 cases referred by the Minister under subsection 3(2) of the Hospital Labour Disputes Arbitration Act. One application was granted, six cases were settled, two cases were terminated, and two cases were pending on March 31, 2010. (Table 1)

First Agreement Arbitration

In 2009-2010, the Board processed 31 applications for directions to settle first agreements by arbitration. Nine cases were settled, three cases were granted, and nineteen cases were pending on March 31, 2010. (Table 1)

Occupational Health and Safety Act

In 2009-2010, the Board received 82 complaints under section 50 of the Occupational Health and Safety Act alleging wrongful discipline or discharge for acting in compliance with the Act. Forty-six cases were carried over from 2008-2009.

Of the total 128 cases processed, 83 cases were disposed of. Of these, 73 cases were settled by the parties in discussions with labour relations officers (Table 3). 7 cases were dismissed, 2 cases were granted, 1 case was terminated, and the remaining 45 were pending on March 31, 2010.

Appeals under The Employment Standard Act

The Employment Standards Act deals with workplace rights such as minimum wage, hours of work, overtime, vacation or public holiday pay, termination issues, and severance pay.

The Board dealt with 1,191 appeals during 2009-2010. Of the 826 cases that were disposed of, 31 were granted, 150 were dismissed, 533 cases were settled, 112 were terminated, and 365 cases were pending on March 31, 2010. (Table 1)

Appeals under The Occupational Health and Safety Act

The Occupational Health and Safety Act and its regulations ensure that workers' health and safety in the workplace is protected. Violations of the Act are investigated by health and safety inspectors; orders or decisions of inspectors are the subject of appeals to the Ontario Labour Relations Board.

Two hundred and twenty-two appeals were dealt with by the Board in 2009-2010. Of the 157 cases that were disposed of, 15 appeals were granted, 19 were dismissed, 119 cases were settled, 4 cases were terminated, and 65 cases were pending on March 31, 2010. (Table 1)

Applications under The Public Sector Labour Relations Transitions Act

The Public Sector Labour Relations Transition Act, 1997 established a separate regime of successor rights governing matters that arise out of restructuring and amalgamations in the broader public sector. The Act gives the Board the power to determine new bargaining unit configurations, to appoint new bargaining agents, and to address other collective bargaining issues that may arise from municipal amalgamations, school board changes and hospital restructuring.

In 2009-2010, the Board processed 15 applications under the Public Sector Labour Relations Transition Act, 1997. Of the 7 cases that were disposed of, 3 cases were granted, 4 cases were settled and 8 cases were pending on March 31, 2010. (Table 1)

COURT ACTIVITY 2009-2010

On April 1, 2009, there were twenty-two Board matters pending before the Courts, nineteen at Divisional Court, and three at the Court of Appeal (two on the merits: Novaquest and Jacobs Catalytic #1; one leave application: Khan).

During the 2009-2010 fiscal year, there were twenty-one new applications for judicial review of Board decisions filed with the Divisional Court. Two applications for leave to the Court of Appeal were filed (Presteve and Khaiter #2). One application for leave was filed with the Supreme Court of Canada (Khan).

One applicant for judicial review (National Waste Services) brought a motion for a stay of the operation of the Board's decision, pending the hearing of its judicial review on the merits. The stay motion was dismissed, and the applicant subsequently abandoned the judicial review application.

The Divisional Court disposed of a total of twenty-three matters: fourteen applications for judicial review were dismissed; eight were abandoned; one was granted (Lorraine Fraser Viscount).

The Ontario Court of Appeal dismissed three leave applications (Khan, Presteve and Khaiter #2). The Court issued rulings on the merits of two appeals: one was dismissed (Novaquest); the second (Jacobs #1) was allowed.

The Supreme Court of Canada dismissed one leave application (Khan).

On March 31, 2010, there were seventeen outstanding court applications, all of them at Divisional Court. There are no Board matters outstanding at either the Court of Appeal or the Supreme Court of Canada.

OLRB Case Management Efficiencies 2004-2010

Each year the Board undertakes an analysis of its case management efficiencies and reports back on its annual disposition costs. The analysis reviews the number of cases disposed of per FTE (full time employee) and the average annual cost per case calculations and compares the results against the previous fiscal years.

III OLRB – Performance Measures

Each year the OLRB provides a broad accountability of progress achieved on our core performance measures. We take each of our goals and track progress on a series of performance measures designed to assess whether the Board is measuring up to corporate standards and program targets/commitments.

| Measure | Standard / Target | 2009-2010 Commitments | 2009-2010 Achievements |
|---|---|--|--|
| Fiscal Measures: % variance between year end allocation and expenditure | Less than 2% variance between year end allocation and expenditure | Less than 2% variance between year end allocation and expenditure | Actual: - 3.4 % variance Approved budget = 12, 755.3 Actual expenditure = 12, 319.6 |

IV OLRB - Financial Performance

The OLRB is established as an independent administrative tribunal, and operates at arm's length from the Ministry of Labour. However, from a budgetary perspective, the OLRB is an Adjudicative Agency accountable to the Minister of Labour. The Board's annual operating budget is part of the Ministry's estimates and allocation process and the Board is required to report quarterly on its expenditures and planned commitments.

The Deputy Minister of Labour has delegated authority for specific financial and administrative transactions to the Chair of the Board, the Director and Managers.

The OLRB is subject to audit review and expenditure constraints and its managers are accountable for following established management practices and using public resources for authorized purposes.
